

JUDGE UPDATE #2 (Jan 12, 2017)

PARA EQUESTRIAN SEMINAR

CALENDAR CHANGE

My sincere apologies for yet another calendar change.

Our Feb 5, Para Equestrian Seminar has had to be cancelled as it clashes with a Sydney Dressage day, at which most of the PE judges who need to attend the seminar, will be judging.

NEW DATE: Sunday, March 26th 2017

VENUE: Evans Park, 56 Godalla Road, Freemans Reach or
Glossodia (apparently claimed by both suburbs)

TIME: 9.00 Registration, 9.30 Start. Finish: 3.00pm

Evans Park is a beautiful new venue with an indoor school which will guarantee our seminar regardless of the weather. We will be having our theory session in the air-conditioned Cottage adjacent to the indoor school. Tea, coffee, iced water and biscuits are provided at the canteen for us. There is new accommodation at the venue with 4 rooms with king single beds, all completely self-contained should you need to arrive early or stay overnight.

This will be a refresher course for all existing PE judges, however everyone is welcome. We will have 3 demonstration riders/horses in the afternoon who will ride through some of the new FEI PE tests.

I do need an RSVP so that I can organise seating and advise numbers for the canteen. By March 20th please.

Thanks for your patience and I am sorry for any inconvenience.
