

Dressage NSW

Helen Lawson
President

Dressage in Australia

What does Dressage NSW do?

- Runs major competitions and State Championships
- Manages judge and officials education and exams (although final accreditation is through EA)
- Provides support to clubs in NSW (advice, information, funding when available, medallions for club championships, etc)
- Provides feedback on and input into rule changes to ADC
- Manages squads programs (senior HP and young rider)
- Provides annual awards and performance medals for members
- Maintains the annual dressage competition calendar

Dressage NSW Structure

Judges

Sue Cunningham

Squads

Helen Lawson

Major
Competitions
Toni Venhaus

Clarendon
Kathy Shelley

Clubs and Regions
Pamela Bice and
Sam Farrar

How Does this affect You?

Judges:

- Funding for clubs to run seminars
- Many new and upgrading judges in 2016
- Look for opportunities to support new and upgrading judges – encourage them and make it easy by offering support

Clarendon:

- Provides funds for DNSW projects
- Provides shadow, sit-in and exam opportunities

How Does this affect You?

Squads and High Performance:

- Young rider program provides club opportunities – encourage participation

Major Events:

- State Championships – promote AOR and participation at club level to qualify
- National AOR Championships in Qld in October
- Australian Dressage Championships – to be held in Victoria in 2017

Clubs and Regions:

- Club Forum – opportunity to gather information, ideas and network
- Club survey
- Monthly newsletter
- Centreline profiles
- Regional Dressage Festival events
- $19,800 of special projects funding for regional and clubs

How Does this affect You?

Where to Now?

- Shared responsibility for our sport
- Look for opportunities
- Respect for all participants – volunteers, officials and riders
- Communication

.com

T H A N K Y O U

