FEI Numbers Explained

Many riders and owners get confused about the various EA/FEI numbers required to enter a CDI event (3* and above) and where to find them. The information below should help you find the numbers you need.

When entering a CDI event you are required to provide the Organiser with the Horse's FEI Passport number or the FEI Recognition Card number and EA Identification Document number and in addition the Horse and Rider FEI registration numbers.

FEI Horse Passport

FEI Horse Passport number *

FEI Passport expiry date

NOTE: Horses taking part in CDI-Y and YR U25 events in their home country are not required to have an FEI Passport or a FEI Recognition Card and EA Identification Document BUT the horse and rider must be registered on the FEI data base and have a n FEI Registration number

* The FEI Horse Passport number sometimes is the same for both the Passport and the

A horse's FEI registration has to be renewed at the beginning of each calendar year. Owners need to renew their registration each year through Equestrian Australia (see link below).
